Mrs. Samuel Berkley Driskill III

Doss, Driskill wed

The marriage of Tina Lynn Doss to Samuel Berkley Driskill III took place Saturday evening, Feb. 14 at 8 o'clock in Walker's Presbyterian Church in Hixburg, Virginia with the Rev. Millard Stimpson, director of Camp Hat Creek in Brookneal, officiating and the Rev. Peter Hale, pastor of the church, assisting.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth T. Doss of Rt. 2, Appomattox. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Berkley Driskill Jr., of Concord.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Rebecca Doss of Appomattox was her sister's maid of honor and Robin Spiggle of Lynchburg was a bridesmaid. Christie Doss of Appomattox, sister of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid.

Mr. Driskill was best man for his son and ushers were Brad Driskill of Concord, brother of the bridegroom; and Thomas Doss of Appomattox, brother of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School.

The bridegroom was graduated from Rustburg High School and is self-employed as a brick mason.

The couple will live in Concord.

AHC ladies meet

Arts and crafts were the topics for the February meeting of the Appomattox Homemakers Club, held on Tuesday, Feb. 17 in the Fellowship Hall of Liberty Baptist Church.

Following delicious refreshments served by ladies of the church who are also club members, Mrs. Mary Inge brought the devotional. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Louise Plunkett, president, presiding. Mrs. Florence Trent led a discussion of programs for the coming months.

The program on arts and crafts, led by Mrs. Mariella Worley, was enjoyed by twenty members and two visitors. So enthusiastically was Mrs. Worley's demonstration received that members asked that the March meeting be devoted to the making of fabric flowers under her guidance.
